Why do I choose to work in Catholic Education?

My vocation in education has allowed me to work with young people and families in Maryland, Florida, California and Tennessee. Within the diverse communities in which I have lived and worked, one constant has remained – my love for children and my faith in God. How blessed I feel to have had the unique opportunity where both of these aspects intertwine to form my lifelong vocation that is Catholic Education. In our schools we are blessed witness the intellectual development and the spiritual awakening within our students. What a gift it is to behold the growth of both faith and mind within our students!

What do I consider uniquely special about the St. Francis de Sales Catholic School experience?

Each day engenders immeasurable reasons why St. Francis de Sales is such a unique environment. It begins with the true beauty that lies within each one of our students. The joyful love they share for others and their love of learning they have cultivates an environment where scholarship is prized and the transformative relationship one develops with their Lord is cherished. This joyful love our students reveal is nurtured each day through the partnership of supportive parents and our dedicated faculty.

What are my interests beyond my work at St. Francis de Sales?

Outside of St. Francis, my life centers around the relationships I treasure with my family and friends. As I watch my daughter Adriana and son Lucio mature, I recognize the true gift I have been given to walk alongside their journey of life.

When not spending time with my family, I enjoy life at the beach and attending baseball and football games with my friends. Go Ravens...Go Orioles!

What is my favorite quote and the author?

“The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands in moments of challenge and controversy”. – Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.
